Our Vets for Pets

The DogSmith is offering discounts and financing to US Military Veterans as part of their “Vets for Pets” program to help Veterans start their own business.

Florida November 14, 2008 – The DogSmith, America’s leading dog training, pet sitting and dog walking franchise has launched a special program to assist our brave courageous veterans who are looking for a profitable business as they transition to civilian life. “It’s a great chance to use your leadership training, organizational skills and avoid the corporate jungle while doing something you love for a living”, says Kris Simonich, owner of The DogSmith. The special “Vets for Pets” program will include a discounted purchase price for their dog training and pet care franchise and very attractive financing.

The US pet care industry has doubled in the last 5 years growing to $2.9 billion per year. The DogSmith’s proven business and technical model uniquely qualifies them to meet this unprecedented growth and demand for comprehensive dog training and pet care services throughout the US.

Founded in 1998 by Niki Tudge, a professional dog trainer, animal behaviorist and pet care specialist, The DogSmith provides a fully comprehensive, turnkey Pet Sitting and Dog Walking business system to complement its unique Dog Training program all under the umbrella of one franchise. As the only company with a comprehensive Dog Training and Pet Care program, DogSmith franchise owners enjoy the advantages of owning two businesses in one franchise.

Dog Training and Pet Care is making a significant impact in the small business marketplace. The combination of two complementary business models within a “work-from-home” framework affords many dog trainers and pet care professionals a supremely effective fit for entrepreneurs looking to keep costs low and profit margins high.
